2024/25 Leader Letter Week 21

To Healing Journey Leaders:

This is a good place in the year to begin sowing seeds for next year. Healing Journey is more than a Bible study, it is a ministry. The numbers of individuals needing what God is offering here is simply uncountable!

"When he saw the crowds, he had compassion on them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is plentiful but the workers are few." (Matthew 9:36-37 NIV)

There are many ways to grow your ministry (see page 41 in the Class Facilitator Manual [CFM]), but the most effective one is word of mouth. So equip everyone (leaders and students) to share about the Healing Journey class. Provide packets that include 1) the Curriculum Outline (CFM: forms, and on our website), 2) a HHLM brochure (available in packets of 25 from our website), plus, 3) something with contact information and details about your local class. Coach everyone to keep these packets handy and pass them out liberally.

Look for opportunities to share about this ministry with men's and women's groups, your church, other churches, other ministries, retreats—any gathering where men and women are present, and you can get a few minutes to share. Whenever you speak, have your marketing packets ready along with a sign-up sheet for people to indicate their interest.

Part of growing your ministry is growing your leadership. You need a constant influx of new leaders and apprentices. Pray now that the Lord will raise up the leaders needed for next year. Plan to attend Boot Camp, if you haven't already, or if it is time for a refresher. Encourage potential leaders to attend, as well. Boot Camp Information Forms are now available on our website.

Be sure you remain in touch with your authority people, whoever they are, checking yourself into their office occasionally with reports on how it's going. Let them see your enthusiasm. Maintain your call list (CFM: forms) throughout the year, tracking the name and information of every person you talk to who expresses interest in the class.

Your partnership with this God-ordained ministry will reap huge benefits now and eternally. Thank you for joining us.

... Relax in the Lord and enjoy the journey!

Tip of the Week:

Make sure every leader is Boot Camp trained. And if it has been more than 3-4 years, it is time to attend Boot Camp again so you can continue to improve your leader skills.

Blessings,
